

Ben McCarthy, Eugene
CIA 8

PHILADELPHIA, PA.
INQUIRER

M. 603,438
S. 983,643

JAN 25 1966

Probe Urged of CIA's Foreign Policy Role

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy (D., Minn.) proposed that a Senate panel look into the Central Intelligence Agency's influence on foreign policy.

"Serious questions about the relationship of the agency to the process of making and directing foreign policy have been raised by the role of the CIA in the Dominican Republic and in Vietnam," he said as he introduced a resolution for the inquiry.

McCarthy is a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.